Environmental Freedom

November 8, 2020

Freedom from pollution.

Freedom from law.

We are intended to be free—in every sense of the word. We are intended to live by grace. Each of us must aspire and work toward this complete freedom. Anything short of either ideal falls short of human potential. Anything short of either ideal falls short of divine calling. Anything short of either ideal falls short of eternal destiny.

Grace.

Love.

Freedom.
