Superpowers

If you are an environmental professional and see this AI technology for the first time, it almost takes your breath away. The ability to see things you couldn't see together before—and see relationships you never saw before. The visual connectivity. The access. The speed. The technology stimulates imagination, creativity, and innovative problem solving. It's unprecedented.

---"If you are an environmental consultant and don't embrace this AI technology, you will be left behind."—Anonymous
