ENVIROAI

MONITORING

ESG PERFORMANCE

AT THE FACILITY-LEVEL

IN REAL-TIME

---“Companies are not going to greenwash investors and the public . . .because both companies and investors themselves will soon begin to monitor ESG performance at the facility level in real-time.

Everyday EnviroAI’s ability to scrape data from the internet, from agency databases and documents, and collect information from satellites and other remote sensing equipment increases. And everyday our increasing machine learning capabilities are providing more useful insights to our customers from the exabytes of data we are sifting through and analyzing.”
