Huge day for us . . .

October 6, 2020

… unveiling both “AI Air” and “Intelligent EMIS”

-------“We are so incredibly thankful and blessed. Our partnering companies and development staff is incredible. And I can’t say enough about our customers. The vision and passion our customers have for continual improvement and working with us to find even better ways to protect their workers, communities, and the environment is extraordinary. These are not “business as usual”, “status quo” ,“check-the-box” environmental people. These are leaders, innovators … environmental over-achievers. I’m so thankful. So blessed. I just keep smiling ear-to-ear in this endeavor.”

- Jed Anderson, Creator, EnviroAI

It’s a huge day for us …

… The unveiling

“AI Air”
