Virtual tools to help consultants and lawyers . . .

November 19, 2020

Virtual. Covid. Remote working.

Yes.

… but we in the environmental profession still have a job to do.

At EnviroAI we are creating more virtual tools to help our friends make more money, better serve their clients, and better protect the environment—all in the safety of their homes.

EnviroAI has a listing of the TCEQ clients for all the consulting and law firms in Texas. Consultants and attorneys can simply navigate down this individualized list and analyze data and EnviroAI insights for all the facilities they are managing. Fast. Simple. Virtual.
